

Thank you!

The sandbagging process has gone faster than anticipated. After Tuesday afternoon's sandbagging with the community and students, we will have filled all of the sandbags needed. With the weather being near perfect for a slow melt, we feel confident that we have enough if not more sandbags than needed

Thank You - We Did It!